STUDENT CONDUCT

Good citizenship in schools is based on respect and consideration for the rights of others.

Students will be expected to conduct themselves in a way that the rights and privileges of others are not violated. They will be required to respect constituted authority, to conform to school rules and to those provisions of law that apply to their conduct.

Individual school principals and their Site Councils are responsible for developing a Code of Conduct for their respective schools. Said Code of Conduct shall serve as the official document for all questions involving student behavior and disciplinary measures, and should be published in each school's handbook.
